

Mayors Against Illegal Guns Initiative

Mayor Mark Mallory has recruited 14 Mayors and one Township President from the Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky area to join a national Mayors Against Illegal Guns coalition. The coalition was founded by New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg and Boston Mayor Tom Menino to bring together Mayors to focus on a singular goal: making the public safer by getting illegal guns off our streets. For their first act as part of the coalition, the group signed a joint letter to Congress urging the repeal of the Tiahrt Amendment that restricts the ability of cities and law enforcement to access and use of gun trace data. The group of Cincinnati Mayors are the first in the country to join the coalition as a united region of Mayors.
